

Rome Cable Names Foote New Director

At a recent meeting of the Board of Directors, Alfred S. Foote, vice president of J. P. Morgan & Co., Inc., was elected a director of Rome Cable Corp., Rome, N. Y. The company manufactures electrical wires and cables and steel conduit with plants at Rome, N. Y., and Torrance.

Foote graduated from Yale in 1928 and entered the banking field that year with the Farmers Loan & Trust Co. in New York. He joined the Morgan bank in 1941 and became a vice president in 1949, with responsibilities primarily in the general banking field.

Foote is also a director of Chesapeake-Ponds, Inc., and of Production Properties, Inc. He is a resident of Bedford, N. Y.

Burglars Take Edison Company Wire Again

Thieves made a return visit to the Edison Co. equipment yard at 6431 Torrance Blvd. Thursday, taking $500 worth of copper wire and tools. James H. Brown told sheriff's deputies. The thieves cut a four by four foot hole in the chain link fence around the facility, taking a large roll of copper wire and an undetermined amount of tools. The company has had a number of burglaries of wire in the past few months.

Tampers With Letter

Mrs. Walter Sheehan, of 21100 Hawthorne Blvd., told police Friday that someone took a letter out of her mailbox and then tore it up.

Detectives are investigating the charge.
